

ICAR-Indian Institute of Soybean Research Celebrates World Environment Day

ICAR-Indian Institute of Soybean Research celebrates World Environment Day in the direction of Director Dr. Nita Khandekar under the theme, 2020 “Time for Nature”. Young generation of scientist have planted nine trees of guava and palm in the premises of institute campus as a symbol of handling of responsibilities to new generation in taking the institute and our great nation to newer heights.

